2014 AYSO Soccer Camp finishes on a strong note

The 2014 American Youth Soccer Organization Soccer Camp started Monday and finished up on Wednesday. This year's camp was well attended and seemed to be as much fun for the coaches as it was for the young area players.

Elvis rocks the house

The residents at The Legacy Assisted Living Facility in Trinidad recently enjoyed an afternoon on the patio with Elvis impersonator, Paul Hurtado and a cold refreshing snow cone. The King, in his blue suede shoes, serenaded the crowd with his renditions of Elvis songs. The crowd swooned and were thrilled as Elvis transported them back in time. Marcia Lackey, right and Veronica Mosher watched as Elvis brightened the summer afternoon.

Shuler Theater to host annual free concert

Music from Angel Fire presents its annual free concert at Raton's Shuler Theater Tuesday, August 19, at 7 p.m. This year's program features a pair of string quartets by Young Artist Composer-in-Residence Andrew Hsu, plus two concertos by Vivaldi and a saxophone performance by the Donald Sinta Quartet. Local foundations and businesses underwrite the event so that the public can enjoy the concert for free.

ARCHERY

CPW offers intro to arrow building

LA JUNTA, Colo. - Colorado Parks and Wildlife is offering a one-day introduction to arrow building on Saturday, August 16, from 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. at the La Junta Senior Center. The La Junta Senior Center is located at 114 E. 2nd St. La Junta, CO 81050

The workshop, Arrow Building 101, will provide information for new and experienced archery enthusiasts on how to build a complete arrow from start to finish. The program is free and open to the public.

"This workshop will give archers an opportunity to learn about the necessary equipment and materials needed to build an arrow, in addition to techniques for custom decorative work and arrow tuning," said Mike Brown, District Wildlife Manager for Colorado Parks and Wildlife.

Anyone interested in learning about all of the benefits of arrow building and how to repair or make their own arrows is encouraged to attend.

For questions, further information, and to register for this workshop please contact Colorado Parks and Wildlife District Wildlife Manager Mike Brown at (719)-980-0025.

Colorado Parks and Wildlife manages 42 state parks, more than 300 state wildlife areas, all of Colorado's wildlife, and a variety of outdoor recreation.
