"At school I eat a lot of double barbequed-chicken sandwiches with French fries. When I'm home I eat a lot of taco salads with elk meat, nacho cheese Doritos and Catalina dressing."

– Jason Wold, EMS student, TSJC (Trinidad)

"Corn on the cob. It would be neat to grow a corn patch, but we haven't gotten around to it yet. Maybe next year!"

– Ariel Brown, retired nurse (Trinidad)

"Calabacitas. My husband doesn't like them, but I do. It's my family tradition. It reminds me of growing up."

– Lorrie Zamora, Head Start coordinator (Raton)

"I like pizza. I eat it all year, but more in summer. I consider it a summer food. I usually buy pizza at Walmart or Safeway."

– Keegan Kurzenberger, kennel attendant, Lucky's Fetching Finds (Trinidad)

"The problem is, I have so many. If I had to choose, it would be barbequed brisket, smoked by myself from morning to evening. I do it as often as I can, but not enough."

– Scott Chafin, builder/owner, Advantage Builders (Raton)

SUMMER FUN

Art Trekkers hit the streets

The Purgatoire River Trading Company served customs until after 9 p.m. while the Progressive Blue Grass members performed for passersby at Friday night's summer Art Trek in downtown Trinidad. Crowds filled the sidewalks all along W. Main Street with folks out enjoying the evening's various entertainment and shopping venues. Russ Gorman, the new director of the Community Chorale and several members of the group delighted pedestrians during an impromptu performance in front of the Coronet Gallery. Not to be missed was the spectacular ArtoCade entry named Earth, Wind and Fire outside the Gallerie Vivante. Business owners said that Friday night's Art Trek was one of the most successful of the season.
