"I'd like to have my childhood back. I miss having the freedom to do what I want, before basketball started taking all of my time."

— Eric Andres, TSJC automotive engineering student from Opelousas, Louisiana (Trinidad)

"Energy. Hair. The figure I had when I was 20."

— Carol Cray, art teacher (Raton)

"Don't look back. If you're depressed, you're looking back. If you're anxious, you're living in the future. If you're at peace, you're here in the present. I read that on Facebook."

— Betty Martinsen, retired physical therapist, Eden, Utah (Trinidad)

"I wouldn't want to go back in time, but I'd like to have two kittens that I rescued from the shelter—Annie and Lexie. I raised them from very little and even bottle-fed one. They had beautiful personalities."

— Michelle Black, Director of Student Life, TSJC (Trinidad)

"I'd like to have my college years back. I was a perfectionist. I focused my learning on what I thought other people expected me to learn."
